

you suggested to me earlier today that you wanted to do?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: I don't think that would be practical on Final Reading, Senator Higgins.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Well, but that's not answering the question. I'd like a yes or a no. Do you intend, as you suggested to me this morning you wanted to do, take LB 1071 and make it an amendment to this bill?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: I don't intend to right now, no, I might then.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Oh, right now you don't intend to.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: I might...Senator Higgins, what that...

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, you've answered my question, Senator Hoagland. I would oppose suspending the rules, and as much as I'll probably be opposed to whatever amendment Senator Chambers has, I'm still willing to give him his chance at bat because as Senator Hoagland has been pointed out in the Lincoln Journal, he has done this so many times, taken other bills of his own or the Judiciary Committee's and put them on other bills as amendments. Now he is objecting to Senator Chambers trying a second amendment to Senator Abboud's bill, which I don't know what the amendment is, but knowing Ernie's philosophy and my philosophy, I'm sure I'll be opposed to it. But I think fair play is fair play, so I would vote not to suspend the rules.

SENATOR LANDIS: Senator Abboud, followed by Senator Vickers.

SENATOR ABOUD: Mr. President, colleagues, I support the motion to suspend the rules. I think the bill only deals with two areas. The amendment that was offered by Senator Chambers last time was actually amending Senator Higgins' bill that passed last year. It didn't touch the two issues that are raised in this bill dealing with the increased penalty and age. I don't see anything more that really needs to be done to the bill. I think it's in tiptop shape. It's a fine tuning of a bill that was enacted last year and with that I urge the body to support the motion. Thank you.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Senator Abboud. Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: (Response inaudible.)
